CORRUPTED HARMONY

I. PUNISHMENT

Cut your flesh and whip you 'til you bleed Pain deserved is your pleasure for you're a wretched breed Crucified you feel a bliss, a light
You left all other joys behind in endless night

Locked down below
wrath I bestow you call me father
Locked down below
pleasure I give you call me lover

Be my slave enjoy all kinds of pain
Until the grave you won't ever escape from your chains
Been so bad, it's time to pay the toll
You will love it I won't fake it you will get it all

Locked down below
learn a lesson you call me teacher
Locked down below
your sins punished you call me master

In blood and stains
Pleasure in pain
Please me
Obey me

II. BLOOD WRITINGS

Deep inside your very soul
I'll never let you be free Petrified you lose control your fear is sustaining me

Don't you hide without me your life is an empty book I'll make you live all the things you barely had a look Unleash me

I shall rise again
Get your soul insane
I shall rise and reign
In blood I'll write your fate

I'm you saviour in pain
I'm your saviour in pain

I fuck your feelings and fuck your life you are my creature now Do my will or die insane write my stories or live in vain

I shall rise again
Get your soul insane

The stories I tell are written with your blood I'll draw in your well until you meet your God

I shall rise again
Get your soul insane

I am the Devil in you devouring your soul
I am the mind inside you eager to take control
I am your inspiration filling your blood with hate
I am the Devil in you and I'll write in your flesh

Deep in your grave
you are staring at me Your eyes ablaze piercing fiercely through me
You lie so far away from me
You die yet you're so close I see

Constant fear
I see through your eyes
Constant fear
of living the day you die
Your last sunrise
My sleepless nights

Deep in your throat the knife drew a thin line
The man's so close you feel your arms entwine

You lie, your blood flowing like wine
You die, I see his hands they're mine

Constant fear
I see through your eyes
Constant fear
Your last sunrise
My sleepless nights

Constant fear in me

III. CONSTANT FEAR

IV. CORRUPTED HARMONY

Instrumental

V. OPPRESSIONS

Lies - Never believe the propaganda they're selling you to smooth your misery Lies - In books of law, in books of God just meant to exploit you mercilessly Dead - Blood will be shed as they're wasting your life away until the day you live no more Arise - Bring their demise, burst off your chains and fight before you're rotten to the core

No more

Don't pray, don't bow
To their gods of sorrow
Masters of holy books lie
Leaving their puppets to die

Sin - Grins so unclean, joining their hands to pray to forget what they cannot see Screen - Killing machine crushing your mind and soul for a better society War - The latest show watched from your bed to fill your head so that you think no more Demise - Believe their lies and you'll be mute, deaf, blind, your brain rotten to the core

No more

Don't pray, don't bow

Lies - Oppression lies in your belief in them Lies - Oppressors will die if you dare to say

No more

Don't pray, don't bow

Let them die

VI. BLOODY MARY

I can't tolerate your weakness
These wooden idols I found Marks of unholy business
Will be buried in the ground

Join me today, heretic scum
Leave the wrong way, son of Evil

Burn at the stake
For my God's sake

Kill your sins, holy Queen
Merciless burnings, bloody Queen

Don't know why my God's forsaken me
My children dead in the womb
I have done so well my duty
Make them all meet in the tomb

Just call my name, in the mirror
I'll play the game, murderer

Dead and buried
I'm still vivid

Kill your sins, holy Queen

Burn at the stake
For my God's sake

Kill your sins, holy Queen

VII. FACES OF DEATH

Alone
I see the walls around me
Flicker and shrink
Isolating from the world
Leaving me clean and focused Death's upon me
I free myself from

Life
The biggest deception
The great treason

Down
I have been taken under Six feet of earth
I'm a shadow in the night
I see a dull light around Flickering sound
It's my old friend

Death
Touched by its grace
I've seen its face

Down in the cold I see them all
All its faces feared above all Dissolution death or demise Annihilation my soul passing by Expiration fatality
My passing my doom my release my ruin

Death end finish departure
Fate decease destruction
Dying finish mortality Dissolution

VIII. BIRTH OF THE EVIL

Live your fuckin' life in a gloomy cell Tearing down the walls new ones always appear Trapped inside a lie in misery you dwell
Fuck it all at last just get away from here

Trapped within a world that's too narrow for you Surrounded by suckers this earth needs a cleansing
What is on your mind they don't even have a clue Alone you will be to perform the killing

There is no almighty God
To save your ass poor sinner
And you know the end is near for you
Evil knows the ways to get you out
The only price is to sell your soul

Their God is nothing the good in you has failed
The barriers are broken
the Judgment Day has come
You won't stop until they are all nailed
You may well be doomed but you will kill some

There is no almighty God
And you know the end is near for you

Give birth to the evil you're doomed
Give birth to the evil it bloomed

Their God is nothing the good in you has failed
You won't ever stop until they are all nailed

There is no almighty God

IX. DECLARATION OF WAR

Judas traitor
snake in the grass
I won't forget
Stabbed in the back
I've been betrayed
I will never forgive

You will pay me back
in blood and tears
You will pay the price
for all your lies

War
War
Kill the parasite
Kill him now

Inner enemy vile scum of the Earth
You deserve death
For all the things you've done since your birth
You have taken your last breath

You will pay me back

War
War

X. KILL THE PARASITE
